Student Announcements

- Complete a "Student of the Week" form as soon as possible.
- REMINDER: No cell phones, iPods, or electronic devices are to be used during the day. If they are seen, they will be taken.

Faculty/Staff Information

- Weekly Duty — Cafeteria: Scott; Hallway: Payne
- "Careers in Creativity" begins tomorrow morning and continues through Thursday afternoon. Please refer to the e-mail sent yesterday for details. The staff assignments are also on page 4.
 - If you have a guitar you could allow us to borrow, please let Ms. Herr know today, and bring it tomorrow.
- Does last week's tornado scare have you checking the skies? The Cherokee County Amateur Radio Emergency Service will host a basic class called "SKYWARN Storm Spotters" on Thursday, February 28 from 6:00-8:00 PM at the Murphy Middle School gym. It will feature Anthony Cavallucci, a Warning Coordination Meteorologist with the National Weather Service in Morristown, TN. SKYWARN is a spotter network that helps protect life and property. For more information, refer to the e-mail distributed by Mr. Garland, or contact the coordinator of the Southwest Carolina SKYWARN, Kevin Heyboer, at (828) 494-4146 or k.heyboer@verizon.net.

Quote of the Day

"If you want to change the culture, you will have to start by changing the organization."

Upcoming iPad Trainings

- The technology department is hosting trainings on iPads at the Network Operations Center in Marble on Mondays in February from 1:30-3:30 PM. If you plan to attend, please indicate which session on the MYS shared calendar, so we can try to have one staff member at each session. Refer to the e-mail from Jennifer White to sign up.
 - iPads for Beginners: Feb. 4 - This course is for those who have just unpacked their iPad and are learning the basics. Topics to be covered include: Charging, cleaning and caring for your iPad; Connecting to the Internet; iTunes and Apple ID accounts; Setting up email accounts; Syncing your calendars; Using the App Store; iBooks; Using the Essential Apps: Camera, FaceTime, Messages, Calendar, iTunes, Notes, Photos, Contacts, Clock, Maps.
 - iPads in the Classroom: Feb. 11 and 14 - Things a teacher can do in the classroom with their own iPad. Connecting an iPad to your projector and using it as a wireless tablet. What to do with a classroom set of iPads. Ideas for classrooms where every student has their own iPad (or brings their own device). What works and what doesn't. Anticipating what students will try to do with an iPad. How iPads can be used in various subject areas. (NOTE: An overflow of this class will be held on Thurs., Feb. 14 from 3:30-5:30 PM.)
 - iPad Apps for the Classroom: Feb. 18 - 100 apps that can be used in the classroom. Apps for every subject area and grade level will be covered. (Maybe a little biased toward upper grade levels, but I'll try!)
 - iPads for Administrators: Feb. 25 - How to manage large numbers of iPads. Setting restriction profiles, remote management, batch syncing, volume purchasing, iPad policies, insurance, repair and replacement, managing book and app purchases, iTunes accounts.
- We will have staff development and/or trainings on the iPads here at school on the following dates: ~~January 30~~, February 13, February 27, and March 6. The trainings will be after-school and last approximately one hour.
- Also, staff members will complete additional on-site iPad observation and training one at a time at Tri-County Early College this month.

Apple iPad App of the Day: iBooks

Today's featured app is iBooks, which comes installed on the iPad. iBooks is both a way to read books and a way to buy them, You can even download from a wide variety of free iBooks from the App Store.

- Shop the iBookstore: The iBookstore features the best of what's new right at the top of the page. Browse over 1.5 million books, including Multi-Touch textbooks. The books you buy download to your iPad, and iCloud makes them available on your other iOS devices.
- Customize your view: How you read is up to you. Flick from page to page. Change text size. Select a different font. Adjust the brightness. Or choose a white, sepia, or nighttime-friendly theme.
- Use reading tools: You can highlight or underline text, make notes, look up a word in the dictionary or on the web, or search inside the book. You can even use VoiceOver to have iPad read to you.
- iBooks and iCloud: All your purchased books appear in your iBooks library, but they're stored in iCloud, which means you can download and read a favorite on one iOS device and finish it on another.

'Careers in Creativity' begins tomorrow

Our "Careers in Creativity" artists program is finally here! Please refer to your final agenda for additional information. Lunch will be held on our regular schedule, and we will need your assistance making sure the students are where they need to be at the correct times.

We will begin tomorrow morning in the community center immediately after breakfast. All teachers need to be present to help with assigning students to their respective artist of interest. Each teacher will be assigned to an artist to be in the room at all times to help with student supervision. These same teachers will be responsible for helping us sign up students for their art class of first and second choice. Faculty room assignments are as follows:

- Ms. Dougherty will be assisting Kathy Chastain with watercolor painting in the English classroom.
- Dr. Crosby will be assisting Mike Lalone with pottery and sculpture in the greenhouse.
- Ms. Crouch and her substitute will be assisting Sonny Reighard and Bill Pruett with music in the community center.
- Ms. Scott will be assisting Mr. Davenport with wood burning as needed in the shop classrooms.
- Ms. Herr will be rotating among all rooms to supervise and take photos and videos.
- Mr. Payne will rotate among the rooms where the middle school students are located.
- Ms. Maxey and Mr. Gaither will assist with supervision as their schedules allow.
- Ms. Parker and Officer Thigpen will be helping with lunch and may help us with the intercom and/or radios if needed as their schedules allow.
- Ms. Loudermilk will help with major clean-up issues if needed, but minor messes will need to be dealt with in each room.

Thank you for all of your support and cooperation. If you have any questions, please see Ms. Herr.
