Student Announcements

- Six-block schedule students, if you have not taken the pre-survey for Stacked Deck, please see Ms. Herr for a copy and complete it this week. All students participating in Pacesetters need to complete the permission form if you haven't already. See Ms. Herr or Mr. Gaither for another copy.
- Permission slips for Folk School field trip due by Thursday!

Faculty/Staff Information

- Weekly Duty — Cafeteria: Worley; Hallway: Payne
- The 2013 Teacher of the Year will be announced tomorrow. Teachers, you will be receiving a questionnaire today similar to the Student of the Week form. Please complete and turn it in to Ms. Herr by the beginning of first block tomorrow morning. The Teacher of the Year will be highlighted in tomorrow's issue, and one teacher will be featured each week through the remainder of the school year.
- Upcoming events:
  - The middle school class will be dressing up as a "live wax museum" with historical and popular culture significance tomorrow.
  - Field trip to John C. Campbell Folk School on Thursday, April 4.
  - Spring Break is from April 8-12.
  - The "Art in Geometry" unit has tentatively been postponed until April 15-19. More details TBA.
  - A needs assessment team from Raleigh will be coming for a two-day site visit on April 23-24.

Quote of the Day

"Humanity is never so beautiful as when praying for forgiveness, or else forgiving another." — Jean Paul

Futures for Kids update

Opening Eyes and Doors

"Do glaziers work with lasers?"
 "I don't want to be a taxidermist; I hate taxes!"

These are some of the responses we've heard in the classrooms this month as the students begin digging in to their potential futures. It's an incredible thing to be a part of, opening eyes and opening doors, and we thank you for coming alongside.

(And in case you were wondering, glaziers cut and install glass panels. See if you can work that into the conversation this weekend!)

The Futures for Kids team

-Craig, Rebecca and John

Save the Date

We had so much fun at our 10th Anniversary Celebration last year, we decided to do it again! Mark your calendars now for the 2nd Annual Futures for Kids Gala to be held on May 15 at the Governor's Mansion.

Check out more pictures and winners from last year's event on Facebook!

Know someone who goes the extra mile? As we did last year, we will be spotlighting some of our top, educators, students, schools, Career Coaches and business partners. Use the forms below to nominate someone you think deserves a little extra recognition. The deadline for nominations is May 1.

Outside the Box: Shop for Kids

We have several exciting new partnerships to share, in addition to the more conventional ways to contribute to Futures for Kids.

- Dreading the stress that accompanies children's birthday parties of late? Check out Echoage.com, a party-planning website that allows parents and kids to choose a charity and ask guests to donate to the cause in lieu of buying a gift. Echoage uses a 50/50 split to help kids learn about gratitude and giving back while reducing excessive gifts and allowing the child to purchase something they really want.

- Are you a weekend eBay warrior? Now you can raise your listing profile and give back at the same time with eBay Giving Works. During the listing process, you will have the option to "select a nonprofit you love" and indicate the percentage of the sale you want donated. Then sell away as you receive a credit on basic selling fees and eBay takes care of the rest!

In The News

Why a BA is Now a Ticket to a Job in a Coffee Shop

There's a growing perception out there that a college degree no longer delivers the value that it used to.

Women's STEM Careers A Matter Of Choice, Not Ability, Study Suggests

Having skills suited for a variety of careers helps explain why few women pursue math and science jobs, new research finds.

Push to Gauge Bang for Buck From College Gains Steam

U.S. and state officials are intensifying efforts to hold colleges accountable for what happens after graduation, a sign of frustration with sky-high tuition costs and student-loan debt.

About Us

Futures for Kids helps kids determine what they want to be, inspire them to what they can be, and work with them to achieve it.
