

Our final day of high school

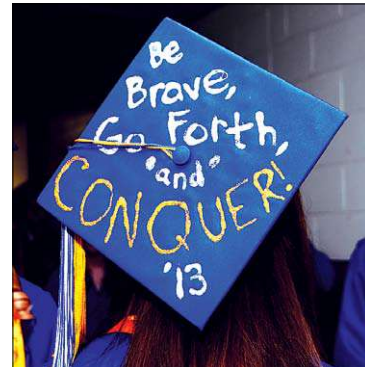

SCOTT WALLACE/swallace@cherokeescout.com
Silly String has become an integral part of graduation ceremonies, and students at Murphy High School's graduation were more than ready to get started Friday night.

SCOTT WALLACE/swallace@cherokeescout.com
Murphy High School salutatorian Michayla Thompson and valedictorian Mark Cambranis enjoy the moment during graduation ceremonies Friday night.

SCOTT WALLACE/swallace@cherokeescout.com
The 2013 graduating class from Tri-County Early College High School enjoy their big moment during ceremonies at Tri-County Community College in Peachtree on Saturday.

SCOTT WALLACE/swallace@cherokeescout.com
Some of the Hiwassee Dam High School graduating class got messages to the crowd in a unique ways Saturday.

JOSEPH MARTIN/jmartin@cherokeescout.com
Murphy First United Methodist Church was packed with family and friends Thursday night to celebrate Mountain Youth School's 2013 class of graduates.

JOSEPH MARTIN/jmartin@cherokeescout.com
Mountain Youth School graduate Heather Tillmes collects her diploma during graduation ceremonies Thursday night at Murphy First United Methodist Church.

SCOTT WALLACE/swallace@cherokeescout.com
Hiwassee Dam High School seniors take a moment to celebrate with their family at the conclusion of Saturday's graduation ceremony.

Ladies' Night Out

Mark your calendar to join us for a free, informative and fun gathering.

Laugh the night away!

Join the fun with Certified Laugh Therapist Cindy Miles, in her invigorating and entertaining show "Laughter is the Best Medicine."

- Tuesday, June 4th
- 5:30 to 6:30 pm
- McGuire's Millrace Farm
- 600 Hendrix Rd, Murphy

For more information, call Deena Collins
Community Relations Coordinator at (828) 835-3659.

SPONSORS

- BRMEMC
- Cherokee County Health Dept.
- The Cherokee Scout
- Clay County Health Dept.
- Newell Collins - Appalachian Land
- Alicia and Paul DeMichael
- Dr. Jeff Martin
- McDonald's
- McGuire's Millrace Farm
- Pat Pratt - UnitedHealthcare
- Paula's Jewelry
- Peachtree Internal Medicine
- Southern Smokies Radiology

